Weekly News Update

National Big Word Day

On Friday 21st April, we will be celebrating National Big Word Day. Children are invited to come into school dressed as the biggest and most sophisticated word they know. Here are some examples below.

Staffing Update

Our Year 6 teacher Mr Croft will be starting a new role at a different school after Easter. We thank him for his hard work and for the difference he has made here at Newtown. We wish him all the best in his future endeavours. After Easter, Mr Ludlam will be teaching Year 6 in the mornings and Miss Johal will be teaching Year 6 in the afternoons.

Attendance News

Summer Boys Vs Girls Attendance Competition

There will be a water-fight in school on Friday 26th May. Who will get the best attendance and win the water fight prize? Will it be the girls? Or will it be the boys?

All the girls and boys in school are going to have to work together to improve their attendance. I wonder who will win and get to soak each other...

94% Attendance Party & Festival

If the whole school can work together to get 94% attendance then we will have a whole school festival style party with face-painting, music and food.

Whole School Attendance

Our Wholes School Attendance Target is

96%

Our current whole school attendance this week is

92.8%

As you can see, we are so close to our goal. Everyone needs to work together to reach our target!

How is your child doing?

Punctuality

Arriving to school on time is very important.

Our doors open at 8:30am.

96% Attendance Reward

Get a chance to play on an inflatable obstacle course if your own attendance hits 96% this year.
